CROFTON SENSATION.

Miss Dora Cavanaugh Hunts a Lover With a Pistol.

Fails to Find Him And the Affair Gets Into Print.

The little town of Crofton has had a social sensation for several days, in which Miss Nora Cavanaugh has taken the leading part. The following special from Dayton, Ohio, Saturday, gave the main facts.

"The authorities have taken into custody Miss Nora Cavanaugh, of Crofton, Ky., who came here in search of a recreant lover. She appealed to the police for aid, saying she would be willing to work to secure money with which to reach home, the search having failed in the location of her sweetheart, who was supposed to have gone to Pleasant Hill, Ohio. Upon her return to Dayton it appeared that the girl was losing her mind, and the Infirmary Department took charge of her. When searched at the station house a revolver was found in one of her stockings, and a nominal charge of carrying concealed weapons was placed against her, but will not be pressed. Her relatives were notified and may care for her."

Miss Cavanaugh's brother came to this city Saturday and wired his sister the money to return home, and she arrived here Sunday and returned yesterday to her father's home in Hopkins county.

Miss Cavanaugh had lived in Crofton for about a year, making her home recently with Timothy Brown's family.

A young employe of the Empire Coal Co. has been paying attention to her for several months and recently the young man left Empire and it was to search for him that the girl went to his former home in Ohio. She failed to find him.

TYPHOID FEVER

Causes Death of Mr. Wortham,
After Brief illness.

Mr. Finis Wortham, a well known cigar maker, died at his home on West Fourth street Sunday evening, after an illness of three weeks, of typhoid fever.

He was 25 years old and is survived by a widow and one child, a daughter about four years old.

Deceased was reared near Sinking Fork, but had been living in the city about five years. He was a member of the Baptist church. Funeral services were held at his late home yesterday afternoon and the interment took place in the Brick church cemetery, near Sinking Fork.

ASSIGNMENTS MADE.

Only Two Christian County Men
Get August Work.

The following assignments of Christian county Government employes was made by Collector Franks at Owensboro last week: Guager—J. W. Morgan, Glenmore distillery, No. 24. Store keeper Guager—John W. Postell, general and special B. W. H. As this is the dull season among the storekeepers and guagers, on account of the majority of the distilleries closing down during "dog days," there were only about 40 assignments made for operation during the month of August. This leaves about 30 unassigned men, who will have to wait for fall jobs.

Lost Little Son.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. McGee, died last Friday evening at the home of its parents on Fourth street. The interment took place in Hopewell cemetery Friday.

ON THE HUSTLE

Is The Queen City of the Pennyrile.

Owensboro Will Demonstrate
What She Can Do With a Big Attraction at the State Fair.

The enterprising business men of Owensboro have carried their plans far enough along to make it clear that the State Fair during the week of September 21st is going to be a greater success even than was experienced last year in Louisville.

They are already showing that when Owensboro bids for a big attraction, success is assured the enterprise, it matters not what the nature of it may be.

This, at least, is the opinion of the directors of the State Fair, who found a re-seeing, determined set of business men at Owensboro ready to take hold of every suggestion and carry it to a successful conclusion.

The following local committee have been placed in charge there:

ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

Dr. J. G. Hickman, C. W. Bransford, Lee Ray.

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE.

W. C. Archer, J. W. McCulloch, L. S. Frederick.

During August about 25,000 handsome State Fair posters will be hung, most of them of course in Western Kentucky counties.

Secretary L. B. Shropshire, at the headquarters in the Board of Trade Building, Louisville, is daily receiving scores of letters from the biggest live stock men in this State and in the United States announcing their intention to compete for the $20,000 cash prizes that will be distributed. Several new, big amusement attractions will be announced in a week or two.

COMMISSIONER'S SALES

Of Town Lots and Farms in Christian.

Master Commissioner Frank Rives sold the following property yesterday:

Forty-two acres land on Sinking Fork to Mrs. M. L. Zimmer, $201.

House and lot near Elmo, to J. C. Jenkins, $745.

Two lots in Lafayette suburbs, one of five acres and the other four, both to Bettie W. Fagua, $165 and $167.50 respectively.

Sixty-three and one-fourth acres near Bennetts town, to C. J. Robertson, $796.

House and lot in Pembroke, to Wade & Hobdy, $150.

House on lot No. 13 in old Fair Ground addition, to Charlie Long, $148.

Two hundred and fifty-six acres on Sand Lick Creek, North Christian, to H. E. Wade, $500.

AWAY 25 YEARS.

Texas Resident Visiting Friends
After Long Absence.

Mr. S. A. Wingo, who for the past twenty-five years has been engaged in business in Texas, is visiting the family of Mr. J. C. Weddington, near Laytonville. If time will permit, Mr. Wingo contemplates visiting other relatives in Christian county before going to West Virginia, his former home, for a visit to old friends and relatives in that State.

To Mammoth Cave.

Mr. Wm Bryan, of Russellville, the L. & C. excursion manager, will take an excursion from this county to Mammoth Cave, August 21, for $6.00 for the round trip, cave fee and hotel charge for one day.

Mrs. McGeehe Better.

Mrs. H. C. McGeehe, of Gracey, who has been very ill for two weeks, is somewhat improved. She was threatened with appendicitis.

NO POPE YET.

Fruitless Ballots Taken Saturday and Sunday.

Burning Ballots Tell Outside
Crowds That No Election Has Been Had.

Rome, August 3.—The conclave of cardinals took two more fruitless ballots yesterday. It is said that if Oreglia, Mamolla and Serafino Vannutelli drop out of the race, a "dark horse" is a possibility. In this connection, Cardinal Gibbons is mentioned. Efforts have been made by outsiders to communicate with some of the cardinals and suspicious signals have been seen in the cells of several.

From the smoke which issued from burning ballots in the little chimney on the Sixtine Chapel tonight a vast multitude gathered around St. Peter's learned that the second day of the conclave had been fruitless. The conclusion is drawn that the strength of the leading candidates remains unbroken and that no compromise candidate has yet appeared. And there is no indication of how long this condition of affairs will continue. The prolongation of the contest has aroused tremendous public interest, if, indeed, it cannot be called excitement. Every trace of that apathy which followed the death of the late Pope has vanished and instead there now exists a burning interest in everything pertaining to the election of his successor.

HEAVILY FINED

For Using Obscene Language and General Disorderly Conduct.

Bill Wallace, col., is in the clutches of the law again. This time he was fined $100 and given, in addition, 50 days in the workhouse on a charge of breach of the peace. Wallace appeared at the house of Fred Ellis about one o'clock Sunday morning and used very abusive and obscene language. He was very disorderly and remained on the premises about three hours. Mr. Ellis was unarmed and therefore powerless. Mattie Wallace, Bill's wife, became indignant at her husband's arrest and she too was taken into custody. A fine of $10 and costs was assessed against her and she was also sent to the workhouse.

Mr. Short Improving.

The condition of Mr. A. B. Short, of Paducah, formerly of this city, who has been very sick for six weeks, is somewhat improved. Mr. Short is afflicted with rheumatism, but is now able to put his feet to the floor.

QUITS THE RACE.

Senator N. W. Utley Will Not Stand For Re-Election.

Publishes a Card Withdrawing in Which He Rasps His Foes and Some Others Also

Eddyville, Ky., July 30.—State Senator N. W. Utley, the member from this district, is out in a card in this week's issue of the Tale of Two Cities in which he withdraws from the race. His card is a very salty one, as he scores a number of local politicians, an editor of a local paper, and pays his respects to Jack Chinn, Gov. Beckham, and district and state machines. In closing his card Senator Utley says: "The scheme is to disorganize the democratic party, and then control it. I speak deliberately. The thing is run by disorganizers. Every man of them has a bolting record. Abe Thompson's conduct as a bolter is notorious. John Keys is a past master at the art of fighting democrats. Sinking Fund Smith turned a white feather in '99 in the face of the enemy, and after the election cast reproach upon the martyred Goebel and the contest bolters."

"They are running a lot of bolters. Mr. Grassham was under the log cabin in '97, while Mr. Grasty, whom the ring are pledged to nominate, once dished himself by bolting the nominees, who had beaten him, and running for county clerk against him. I write this not merely to find fault, but to put the people on guard."

"Mr. J. W. Gilbert, the Calloway candidate, is a good democrat. But the ring expects to throw him overboard, and nominate a bolter, a man of their own ilk. So I should say let the people rally to Mr. Gilbert. Let at least a democrat be nominated. Rebuke the corrupt machine that far, and let the banner be in the hand of a man who has never made war upon it."

FINE PEARLS.

Mr. Wadlington Finds Three in Little River.

Mr. Richard Wadlington recently found three pearls in Little River, at a point just below Pee Dee. One of them is extra fine and is prized very highly. It is pink in color, large and barrel shaped, with ridges representing barrel hoops. Mr. Wadlington has refused $65 for this gem. He values it at $100. It is the only pearl of the kind found in that stream for years, it is claimed.

The finder of the pearls sold one the size of a turkey shot for $20. The third gem is a little larger than this one and is valued at $25.

WIFE KILLED

By Her Husband Who Thought She Was a Burglar.

Fulton, Ky. July 30.—This morning at 2 o'clock Mrs. Chas. Binford, a well known lady of this place, arose from her bed without awaking her husband and left the room. When she came back in a few minutes the shutting of the door aroused Mr. Binford. He saw the outline of her form and fired, supposing her to be a burglar. The bullet passed through her body, killing her almost instantly. He is beside himself with grief and horror and has to be restrained by his friends from doing himself injury.

Not Over-We.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by C. K. Wily, druggist.

A Famous Expression.

A famous expression is, "where am I at?" Its author, former Congressman James Cobb, of Tuskegee, Ala., died June 4, at East Las Vegas, N. M. Mr. Cobb represented the Fifth Alabama district in congress for twelve years. The New York World explains the origin of the famous expression in this way: "Congressman Cobb held the center of the stage in 1875, through a controversy with Congressman Thomas Watson, of Georgia, who charged him with being intoxicated during the debate on the Rockwell-Noyes contested election case, when Mr. Cobb asked the chair in a bewildered way, 'Where am I at?' Mr. Watson said that Mr. Cobb drank out of a private bottle and was badly mixed. A long congressional investigation, with many humorous aspects, resulted in finding that Mr. Cobb drank only cold tea, was not intoxicated, and did not 'reel in the aisles,' as charged."—Commoner.

Prof. Harrison's New Teacher.

Mrs. H. E. Stone, the new teacher of English Literature at Bethel Female college, comes with high endorsements from many able men, among them Hon. A. S. Culyer, Prof. J. B. Hancock, Prof. W. H. Baskerville and Judge H. H. Luiton, of Nashville. Prof. Jas. H. Fuqua, Russellville, says of her: "I wish to bear testimony to Mrs. Stone's refinement as a lady, to her extensive literary culture, to her thorough mastery of the subject she teaches, to her ability to impart knowledge, and to her peculiar power in stimulating the ambition of her pupils. I have been engaged in teaching twenty eight years, in three of the best colleges in Kentucky, and I frankly say I have never met Mrs. Stone's superior in all things that are essential to the model teacher."

HIS HEAD WAS CUT OFF.

Horrible Death of a Fireman on the Illinois Central Railroad.

Paduach, Ky., July 30.—Pat Haggerty, of Paduach, was run over by a passenger train on the Illinois Central at Millington, Tenn., last night, and his head was cut off. He was a fireman and had been ordered back, and it is not known how he came to be killed. He was twenty-three years old and quite popular. His head was found in one place and his body in another.

HIS WORD FOR IT.

No Need for Hopkinsville People To Do Any Guessing.

No need for Hopkinsville people to fly about in search of relief from back aches, urinary weaknesses and disorders and other symptoms of kidney troubles. A man whom you can believe says that Doan's Kidney Pills will reach all such cases.

C. B. Eades, of the firm of Eades & Davis, proprietors of the Coal Yard on Seventh street and the L. & N. R. R. and who lives at 402 East Seventh street, says: "I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and so highly recommended by persons who had used them that I went to Thomas & Traher's drug store, procured a box and gave them a thorough trial. I had suffered for a long time with a heavy pain across the small of my back, sharp and acute at times. When I caught various remedies but none of them gave anything like as satisfactory results as I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I am now so much relieved that they brought me great relief. I have recommended the pills and will continue to do so to all my friends and acquaintances."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Judgment for Auditor's Agent.

Owingsville, Ky., July 30.—State Auditor's Agent, T. C. Albright, who brought suit against Geo. G. Hamilton, of this county, for back taxes belonging to the estate of the late Henry Worthington, of Covington, was given judgment in the County Court here for $35,742. Hamilton is executor of the Worthington estate.

A Worm Killer.

J. A. J. Montgomery, Puxico, Wayne Co., Mo., writes: "I have little twin girls, who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge. The first two doses brought them out from one of them, the next two doses, twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches; the other child was only relieved after the fourth dose. I am an excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. I not only destroy worms, it helps the child to perfect growth, ward off sickness. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's.

Accepts Sunday Fines.

Paduach, July 30.—In reply to the resolutions of the municipal association, requesting Mayor D. A. Yeiser not to accept the local baseball association's Sunday net profits for charity, the Mayor replies that he would not consider the request, but would take all money given him by the association.

Physicians and Druggists.

Ford & Sturgeon, a prominent drug firm at Rocky Hill Station, Ky., writes: "We were requested by Dr. G. B. Singley to send for Herbine for the benefit of our customers. We ordered three dozen in December and we are glad to say, Herbine has given such great satisfaction that we have duplicated this order three times, and today we gave our salesman another order. We beg to say Dr. G. B. Singley takes pleasure in recommending Herbine. Six bottles at R. C. Hardwick's."

Trying to Settle Strike.

Pretty Neckwear for Tailor-Made Gowns

THE soft of the most fastidious devotee to chic tailors' severity in dress may be more than satisfied this season. The halls with delicate light the return of the high linen collar. Nothing for her mind has ever taken their place, and women who hold exquisite views, though they look askance at the rows of linen collars that have so suddenly filled across the counters, admit grudgingly that the most beautiful things are smart.

A mingling of delicate and austere effects shows in the new high turn-over linen collars which are ornamented with embroidered or woven-in dots in white or color and a single or double row of hemstitching about the edge. Other linen turnover collars come in uncompromising plainness. Some of the models have a perpendicular button-hole near the edge of each flap in front. Through these buttonholes a link clasp is slipped.

Low rolling Byron collars are popular for sporting costumes, as they permit perfect freedom of the throat and at the same time have a neat, trim appearance.

Odds and Ends of Summer Fashions

SO RAPIDLY do the fashions grow and blossom at this season of the year that one can scarcely do more than take passing notice of individual cases, or of the dainty little auxiliaries, or the general trend. For one whose duty it is to keep the feminine mind informed of what is to and what is to wear, the season offers many trials that have been foreseen, but not encompassed. So it is that for this time my readers must needs be satisfied with what I can offer, with a promise of something more substantial in the future if it can be found. But, after all, is it not the dainty trimmings that make the attractiveness? I doubt if I can do better than paragraph a few of the things

AN AFTERNOON AT HOME GOWN.

I have seen and liked, and which show the trend of fashion. For instance, there is quite a craze for bordered materials, sometimes it is a flowered band, or a simple branch of roses, or a row of leaves. Blurred designs and cachemire patterns are most fashionable, after which, we can mention quite a new series of place alpacas, mohair and canvas in the new supply make, which is required this season to meet our clinging style of dress.

Trimmings are in with mother-of-pearl, scales gold, platinum, or steel, Greek lace insertion and Russian embroideries are very smart, and much used on white silk or cloth costumes. Hanging ornaments, fringe, and frogging appear on the three-quarter gown of which we are wearing cloth or black silk. Buttons, too, are a prominent feature on skirts and bodices.

Black Chastelly lace is very fashionable, and some lovely imitation is being sold in the guise of eyes, rounded or pointed, empire scarves, and insertion of the wavy or square pattern. Detached diamond-shaped pieces of lace are much used as transparent trimmings for necks and bodices.

Paris is preaching with characteristic enthusiasm the persuasions of a certain light tone. But in regard to this I am disposed to shrink from a certain pronounced clearness of skin to carry it off to its best success. I met the fancy, however, the other day, posing successfully as a contrast to navy blue, in the guise of a much gauged tulle toque, entouche, and petitcoat, and an instant verdict of the tout ensemble was "admirable." For the little soupçon that means so much in these days, champagne and that delicate French Gray are alike in hourly request for facings, pipings and strappings. In cloth and applied to gowns of a like genre these delicate contours are frequently overlaid by close lines of narrow bands, worked

A linen collar which has attained popularity in Paris is a stiff clerical band, fastening with two studs at the back. The scarf is tied about the base of the collar.

The tie which is, as a rule, worn with the stiff linen collar is the long scarf of soft silk crepe or the new linen gauze. Individuality is the cry of the season. The stiff linen collar itself is rather against it, but the soft scarf tie without detracting an iota of firmness still admits originality in knot or bow. A woman may tie her scarf as she pleases provided only the general effect is chic.

Long scarfs are the prevailing neckties. There are, indeed, comparatively few stiff mannish ties to wear with linen collars. Even ascots are softly crossed or the ends merely looped over each other. The Windsor tie, with its loose free bow or sailor knot, is a favorite.

Ribbon is much used for neck scarfs. The lousine, taffeta, liberty and surah varieties lend themselves admirably to the purpose. It is not only the texture that recommends them, but also the becoming colors and sheen.

through with a strand of silver or gold, the latter lending at once a certain brightness and flash to an otherwise too sombre costume. Many of the new fabrics show face effects. For instance, we have colored grass lawns fine as chiffon. Lace striped silk in new designs show inlet bands of chine or flowered silk. Other materials appear to be composed of one strip of ribbon and one of lace, and fine silk foulards have printed lace stripes. Green muslins are a novelty. The "Liberty" muslin fine as "chiffon," old-world "mull" muslin, clear Swiss, hand-embroidered and cerise muslins, and dainty colored bolting are in every shade and variety. Halls of silk, and embroidered muslins in blue, pink, green and yellow are popular. Old laces, attain fabulous prices and are being eagerly sought after by connoisseurs. The more transparent a dress can be made, the more fashionable it will be.

As now let us turn to a few individual gowns. One which I saw the other day, was intended for afternoon wear at home, and is here illustrated. It told me a most enchanting tale in rose velveteen, both skirt and bodice, with wavy strappings of rose taffeta. About the waist was disposed a deep folded belt of rose ribbon, a knotted cincture of the latter falling from a small collar of chemise and wavy hand lace threaded with bebe ribbon velvet.

Yet another model that rested its chief success on the finest killing was a scheme of palest green mousseline de soie, the long lines of the skirt broken at intervals by deep horizontal folds of soft shaded green ribbon. A fascinating little bodice, all drooping and limp, carrying a collar of the finest green lace, this and the deep cuffs to the sleeves decked with chrysoprane and silver buttons. The whole is a harmony of green as seductive in its way as the rose.

The other illustration shows a linen frock in all its latest seductions of embroidery and drawn thread work. For choice, a white linen, the graduated folds on the skirt set on with drawn lilies or "faint" stitch. The congregated mass of decoration on the blouse is a noteworthy feature of the gown, and the lines of the actual bodice material itself or applied in the form of bands. The unadorned yoke emphasizes splendidly the now decreed lengthened shoulder line, while a neat collar-band of drawn linen work completes a really sweet frock.

State College of Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) College of Kentucky, offers the following courses of study, viz: Agriculture, Horticulture, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Physical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical, Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post graduate studies are also provided, leading each to a Master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers nearly 100 professional instructors.

COUNTY APPOINTMENTS receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and lights, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses.

The laboratories and museums are large, well-equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The legislature appropriated $60,000 for a college home for young women and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men. The latter is completed and in use, the former will be ready for occupancy in October.

Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress. Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply. Last year the matriculation list was 604.

Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering and instruction in science.

Specialists with necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science. The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of College, is the only institution in the commonwealth doing, in any proper sense, university work.

The completion of the college home for young women will provide facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences, including bath rooms and room for physical culture. It will be heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is afforded to them of a thorough education in Classics, Modern Languages, Literature, Science, Mathematics, Logic, Metaphysics, History and Political Economy. No other institution in the State offers the advantages for the education of the men at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

For catalogue, methods of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study, and terms of admission apply to JAMES E. PATTERSON, B.S., LL.D. Or to D. C. FRAZER, B.S., Manager, Lexington, Ky.

Fall term begins Sept. 7, 1903.

A Touching Story.

Count Cassini, Russian ambassador to the United States, relates the following story:

"A Russian manufacturer had in his employ a mechanic who for some time had been pleading as an excuse for absence, that his child was ill. When the man did appear for work his face bore unmistakable signs of dissipation, according to the employer's point of view. The workman said it was due to loss of sleep.

"One morning when there was an important piece of work to be done (for the mechanic was a fine artisan), a fellow workman came in and reported to the manufacturer that the irregular mechanic could not come. The child was very sick.

"Angered, the master demanded the place of residence of his lying workman, and he himself would go and rout him out of his drunken stupor.

"The fellow workman, however, gave a detailed and intricate plan of the district in which the house could be found that the manufacturer did not go to investigate.

"Next morning the workman again reported that the mechanic could not come.

"I will find him," said the irate employer, "where does he live?"

"Very simple matter," said the workman.

"Simple," roared the manufacturer, yesterday you made believe that it was almost impossible to find him.

"True," said the man, falteringly, "now you just look for the house with crapes on the door." "Toledo Bee.

A Great Sporting News Journal.

The illustrated section of The Sunday Chicago Record-Herald thoroughly deserves the attention of every one interested in sporting news. It is always beautifully illustrated and embraces four full pages, covering with the thoroughness that satisfies to the utmost the whole realm of sports. Baseball news, racing news, bowling news, cycling news, pugilistic news, golf news, yachting news—all the sporting news is given with the greatest degree of fulness and interest. The sporting page of the daily issues is also exceptionally popular—a self-evident fact to those who have noted the white pages of The Chicago Record-Herald among sporting men.

Acquitted of Murder.

Marshall Sam Kerwin, of Fordsville, who killed Lincoln Smith by shooting him in a fight on a train, had his examining trial before Judge Miller, and as all the testimony was in his favor, he was acquitted.

Strange Disease Kills Cattle.

A strange disease has broken out among the cattle in the section of Rockport, Ky., near Matanzas. The cattle when first stricken stagger and fall down and their legs stiffen out. They remain in this condition until they die.

Father of 25 Children.

Paoli, Ind., July 30.—Israel Grider, a farmer and well known citizen of near here, died yesterday of old age. He was 81 years of age, and the father of 25 children, no two of which was the same age. He was born in Cumberland county, Ky., in 1822, but came here early in life.

Negro Refugees at Sturgis.

Sturgis, Ky., July 30.—Some dozen or more negro families have arrived here from Indiana, fleeing from mob violence and race wars. The negroes find homes with the colored citizens of Boxtown.

SHOCKING CRIME.

Little Girl Assaulted Twice in Robertson County.

Springfield, Tenn., July 30.—Beulah Summerville, the 13-year-old daughter of Richard Summerville, who lives near Cross Plains, this county, was assaulted by a man named Carl Gregory Thursday morning about 3 o'clock, after accomplishing his purpose Gregory fled to parts unknown.

The child had gone to Gregory's to stay all night with his sick wife, when about 3 o'clock Gregory assaulted her. The child then started for home in the dark alone, and had scarcely gotten a hundred yards from the house when Gregory overtook her and accomplished his purpose the second time. He then fled in the direction of Gallatin.

Sheriff Payne was telephoned for at this place, and was on the spot as quick as a horse could carry him and in company with a large posse of citizens in pursuit of him, and it is thought that the fiend will be captured soon. Gregory is a "hill-billy," having recently come from White county. Mr. Summerville is a respectable and well-to-do farmer.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world. There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

The Review of Reviews.

The Review of Reviews is unequalled among monthly periodicals in the freshness and range of the topics which it "covers" every thirty days. In the August number, for instance, we have a most interesting character sketch of the late Pope from the pen of that stalwart English Protestant, Mr. W. T. Stead, while the art of the centric James McNeill Whistler, who died suddenly on July 17, is represented by reproductions of several of his most characteristic works, with a biographical sketch by Mr. Ernest Knauff; Mr. Wolf von Schierbrand writes on the results of the recent German elections, with special reference to the gains of the Socialists, and Mr. Othon Guerlain contributes a character sketch of the French Socialist leader, M. Jaures; the great harvest in Kansas, which ended late in July, is described in an illustrated article by Mr. Philip Eastman: "The Present Status of the American Labor Movement,"—a subject much before the public in the last few weeks—is carefully analyzed by Mr. John R. Commons, while the untoward conditions that confront the English worker are described by Mr. M. Fran. Fayant; the post-office scandal, the lynching craze and the "peonage" exposures in the South are reviewed by the editor in "The Progress of the World"; the new "general staff" of the army, which will begin its work on August 15, is discussed in the department of "Leading Articles of the Month"; and in the same number the very latest electric power plant installations from the Hudson River to Southern California and Mount Rainier are described in a series of illustrated articles which bring out the possibilities of American water-power development in a most interesting and striking way.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered. —F. L. WILKINS, Shell Lake, Wis.

Gold is a very ordinary metal compared with radium, the new metal, worth $900,000 a pound.

Seelbach's new hotel in Louisville will probably be called "The Cosmopolitan."

Senator Gorman has virtually announced himself a Democratic candidate for President.

Wm. J. Bryan will be in Owensboro this week for the purpose of delivering a lecture.

Miss Lillian May, a Baltimore girl, was married last week to Lord Bagot, of London.

The rumor is revived that the Tennessee Central will, as soon as completed, pass into the hands of the Illinois Central.

And now they are saying that a Kentuckian led the mob at Danville, Ill. The same was said of the Wilmington mob. Are there no leaders of men outside of Kentucky?

Hon. W. J. Bryan is to open the Chautauqua at Owensboro, on Friday, August seventh, when he will lecture on "The Value of an Ideal," mounting the platform promptly at 3 o'clock.

Another will of Gen. Cassius M. Clay has been found, having a later date than all others. It is a holograph, dated March 28, 1901, and makes Dora Clay Brock the principal executrix as well as legatee.

The Washington Post prints a cartoon headed "He's Gwine Back to Dixie." A negro is headed to leave Kentucky, hunted by armed mobs from Delaware, Indiana and Illinois. Northern mobs are chasing Kentucky to be over-run with negro refugees.

Joseph W. Folk has begun an active campaign for Governor of Missouri. As all the rascals in the state will fight him, he has a hard row to hoe. A candidate to be invincible must have the law-breakers for him. They are not for "Folk the Felon Fighter."

Judge Locken, of St. Paul, has decided against Gov. Van Sant in his great case against the Northern Securities Company. Jas. J. Hill's celebrated "merger" of Northwestern railroad interests. The governor will take an appeal. The decision holds that the state law has not been violated.

Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, seems to have been outdone in China in suppressing the liberty of the press. Since Schen, a Pekin editor was beaten to death at the order of the Dowager Empress because he was a reformer. His punishment lasted for two hours, and the flesh on his back, arms and legs was reduced to ribbons.

Special Judge Robbins convened the Scott circuit court at Georgetown yesterday to try Caleb Powers for alleged complicity in the assassination of William Goebel. There will be considerable new evidence and a notable witness will be Henry E. Youtsey, now serving a life term for his share in the crime. The jury may be obtained from Bourbon county.

Eczema

How it cures the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales.

Some people call it tetter, milk crust or salt rheum.

The suffering from it is sometimes intense; local applications are resorted to, but it cannot cure.

It proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla positively removes them, has radically and permanently cured the worst cases, and is without an equal for all cutaneous eruptions.

Hood's Pills are the best cathartic. Price 25 cents.

Col. T. C. Campbell, who is in charge of the prosecution of Gov. Goebel's assassins, will obtain assistance from Gov. Beckham a request to Gov. Darbin to deliver W. S. Taylor to Kentucky. In case this is refused a mandamus will be sought before the supreme court of the United States. Should one be granted and disobeyed, contempt proceedings will be begun.

The Livingston Banner strongly urging the nomination of Charlie Grassham by the District Convention, for State Senator next Friday. All candidates of the anti-Thompson faction have withdrawn and only J. W. Gilbert, of Calloway, is an open candidate, but F. K. Grasty, of Trigg, and C. C. Grassham, of Livingston, are in a waiting attitude.

The Cynthia Democrat is giving excellent accounts of the Jett-White trial, now in progress there. The Democrat ridicules the flight of Capt. B. J. Ewen on the day before the trial began, because he was not promised a constant guard of soldiers. The Captain's show of timidity in a law-abiding Bluegrass county did not add to his reputation for bravery.

Better Than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes P. J. Green of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicine I ever used. They have kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female trouble; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by R. C. Hardwick.

BASE BALL.

Clarksville Club Here for a Series of Games.

Hopkinsville won the game at Clarksville Friday and last Saturday's game. The score Friday was 15 to 10, and Saturday 7 to 0. The Clarksville team arrived here last night for a series of three games at Athletic park, beginning this afternoon.

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr. H. Higgins of Melbourne, Fla., writes: "My doctor told me I had consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It truly saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by R. C. Hardwick Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial Bottle free.

The Cosmopolitan.

The Cosmopolitan for August is particularly noteworthy from three different aspects: First, every article is not only interesting in subject, but entertaining in style; second, it is a Midsummer Fiction Number, replete with brilliant short stories of love and adventure; third, its articles are profusely and finely illustrated. "Dramatic Schools," by David Belasco, an article on the meat-packing industry; Frank Moss's "The Tragedy of Policy in New York"; "Shakespeare in Modern Settings," and "Romances of the World's Great Mines—The Klondike," all are illustrated with splendid photographs, and written in an entertaining way.

AUGUST WEATHER.

Figured Out By Marsh, the Ohio Prophet

Month of Intense Heat and Numerous Electrical Storms, With Considerable Rain.

Prophet Marsh says: August will be a month of intense heat and damaging storms, covering a greater portion of the entire country.

Damaging storms, high winds, electrical display and at times heavy rains will prevail over the Eastern States, covering New York, New Jersey, Maryland and New England, the Atlantic ocean and coasts.

Cyclones and electrical storms, with rain, wind and hail, over the West and Northwestern states.

Destructive storms over Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois and the mountain districts. Rising streams and creeks will cause much damage to crops and property, and those living along the creeks and streams can look for sudden, dangerous rises.

Terrific cyclones and cloudbursts will occur on the gulf of Mexico, causing damage at Galveston, Tex., and along the Florida and Carolina coasts and states adjoining.

Five stages of water will prevail in the rivers during the month, and at times dangerous rises may be expected on account of heavy rains, but these rises will be of short duration. The heavy rains over Savannah, Ga., will flood the lowlands, damaging the rice and cotton crops in that vicinity.

Between 3d and 6th—Extreme heat and principally dry weather will prevail over the entire country, causing many prostrations and deaths.

Between 7th and 12th—Severe storms will prevail generally, covering the entire country, very severe over the East, South and West, and upon all bodies of water; cyclonic storms, high wind and heavy rain over Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia and Tennessee. These storms will be quite severe, but of short duration.

Between the 13th and 18th—Severe storms, high winds and heavy rainfall over the Mississippi and Ohio valleys, and very heavy rains over West Virginia; general storms and rainfall from Lake Huron southward to Texas, covering a belt from the Ohio to the Tennessee river. Storms, wind and heavy rains over the Gulf and South Atlantic States; cloudbursts and heavy rainfall over the Ohio river valleys and over Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee, causing streams to overflow, damaging crops. These storms will be more severe over central and northern Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia.

Between 20th and 23d—Heavy rains in the mountain regions of Pennsylvania and Virginia, severe gulf storms extending from Louisiana to Florida. This storm will also range over the states of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Tennessee.

Between 25th and 31st—General rains and storms, with high winds over the entire country west of the Mississippi river, extending into Illinois and Tennessee.

BITTEN BY PET DOG.

And Fearing Hydrophobia a Ladstone Was Applied.

Mrs. David Wood, of near Cerulean, was bitten by her pet dog one day last week. The animal acted in such a strange manner that it was feared it had hydrophobia and Mrs. Wood went to Paducah, where a madstone was applied to the wound.

EARTH'S DESTINATION.

Said to Be Flying with Incredible Speed Straight for Vega.

An importance which relatively few persons are aware of attaches to an expedition which has just gone to Chitt from the Lick observatory in California. Its object, says Collier's Weekly, is to find out whether we are all bound.

Everybody has heard that the solar system is flying swiftly toward the north. It is a plunging flight that carries us more than 43,000 miles straight through the ether every hour of the day and night. It is a motion that has nothing to do with the earth's annual revolution about the sun, except as it prevents that revolution from carrying the earth back turn and turn to the same spot in space.

In truth, we never get back to the same place. Every year comes in with the globe at a point more than 300,000,000 miles nearer to a very bright northern star, named Vega, than it was a year earlier. As far as the evidence now in hand goes, the flight of the sun toward the north is as straight as that of the arrow, but the path described by the earth, since it is compelled all the while to circle round and round the flying sun, is a great spiral.

And this we sweep onward, moving continually into new regions, running through what perils nobody can guess—perhaps none at all—and impelled by a force as mysterious as that which drew the unfortunate ship in the Arabian Nights to be wrecked on the mountain of Adamant.

It is this strange voyage of the sun and its worlds through the unexplored ocean of immensity that the Californian astronomers have gone to South Africa to investigate.

Now, the precise object of the expedition to Chili is to examine the light of the southern stars from which we are flying away. They have been much less studied than have the northern stars, to which we are drawing nearer. It is as if the people on the bow of a ship, after watching for a long time the effects of their approach to objects ahead, should visit the stern in order to note the recession of objects behind. Through a combination of such observations the speed and direction of the ship's motion could be deduced.

But there are many other absorbingly interesting questions relating to the organization of the universe, and our place and rank in it, which will be brought nearer to solution by the success of the exploration of the southern heavens, now beginning.

NURSES HAVE TO SLEEP.

How Some Girls Who Attend the Sick Are Abused.

A young nurse of my acquaintance, says Mary Moss, in the Atlantic, was found early one morning unconscious on the entry floor; upon inquiry the doctor learned that from Monday morning till Thursday night she had been without sleep, or even enough time off to bathe and change her clothes. Of course she was extremely foolish to permit such a thing, on the patient's account as well as her own, but it was her first private case, and feeling shy about noting personal wants in a time of general stress, she had relied on coffee and determination to pull her through. The state joke: "Why, do you have to sleep?" "I thought you were trained!" unfortunately contains not a grain of exaggeration. I have gone to a house where, after a day's nursing, a night spent in sponging a typhoid patient, at ten o'clock on the morning of the second day, the nurse was still in charge; no one had given her night lunch, breakfast, or even a cup of coffee. She had been on duty for 26 straight hours working strenuously all the time; not a member of the household seemed equal to taking her place, or indeed dreamt of doing so. Later it was rumored that this girl had become intemperate.

Mistaken Kindness.

Rev. Dr. Lorimer, the minister at the Madison Avenue Baptist church, is responsible for this story, though he does not vouch for the truth of it, useful as it may be to point a moral: "A nestful of young linnets were in the corner of a field in India. Having lost their mother, they were cold and hungry. They flapped their featherless wings, thereby attracting the attention of a huge elephant which stood near by. 'Ah,' said the elephant, 'you poor little things. You have lost your mother and have nobody to nestle you. I am a mother and have a mother's heart. I will nestle you and keep you warm.' And thereupon the elephant sat upon the nest containing the poor little linnets."—N. Y. Times.

GAYE MUSICALS.

Complimentary to Miss Bessie Russell and Others.

Miss Mary Ratliff gave a musical Friday morning complimentary to Miss Bessie Russell, of Nashville, Miss Bessie Russell, of Hopkinsville, and Miss Edna Ritter, of California, says the Princeton Leader. The program was opened by a double number by Mrs. Campbell. She was charming as a salutation army girl, and she never sang better. Miss Lora Wolff sang in her rich contralto, "Calvary" and "Two But a Dream." Mrs. Shelley Eldred gave a reading, "An Order for a Picture," by Alice Carey, in her usual attractive manner. Miss Ritter sang several songs, "Paris," an Italian song, was exquisitely rendered. Miss Aylen Jones played very skillfully two selections, and Miss Fannie Coleman, of Paducah, captivated the company with several of the latest ragtime songs.

Delicious refreshments were served and the guests took leave of their fair hostess feeling that the dainty function was one of the most delightful events of the season.

An Important Sunday-School Convention.

On August 15-20 there will gather at Lexington one of the most important religious meetings of the year. The leading Sunday School workers of the State of all denominations will meet to consider for three days the Sunday School interests of the State. "One thousand and strong" is the watchword, and with one lure for the round trip and free entertainment of delegates, no doubt fully that many will attend. A special train will be run from Louisville, leaving there about 9 a. m. Tuesday the 18th, and arriving at Lexington about noon. All delegates passing through Louisville are asked to go on this train.

Delegates should see that they understand every detail, so as to avoid annoyance and expense. This information can be obtained from the county officers and from E. A. Fox, Room 19 Louisville Trust Building, Louisville, Ky.

To ensure entertainment, names must reach Chairman of Entertainment Committee not later than August 15th.

IN ALL RESPECTS

The Guthrie Fair Was a Great Success.

The Guthrie fair, under the management of Judge C. C. Givens of Madisonville, was a big success in all respects. Great crowds attended each day and the crowd on opening day—Wednesday—far exceeded in number any that was ever seen on the Guthrie fair grounds.

Smithson Refuses to Be Distanced and Makes a Gain of 400.

HOT FINISH PROMISED FROM NOW ON.

Tuggle has increased his lead this week by throwing a big block of reserve strength and shows a heavy gain in the figures published below.

Smithson continues a formidable second and has a steady increase of votes to his credit. The coupons clipped from the paper are the uncertain element in the race. Many subscribers have saved their coupons for no one in particular and they may in the end throw them to the strongest country candidate in the effort to defeat the city favorite. The last contest narrowed down to a fight between the city and the country and the country won. This time there is but one city candidate, while there have been four strong contestants in the country. The figures to-day are:

L. A. Tuggle, city.....	4042
Chas. W. Smithson, Longview, 3184
S. S. Spicer, Beverly,.....	1641
J. Parrish Meacham, Gracey,.....	1445

STATE CLOSES.

Stronger Case Than Before Made Out Against Jett

Defense Will Begin Today With Alibi Defeated In Advance.

Cynthiana, Ky., Aug. 3.—The Commonwealth closed its case in the Jett-White trial at Cynthiana to-day. An early adjournment was taken Saturday afternoon to allow the attorneys to look over some authorities and prepare for the closing testimony of the State. Henry Freeman was the most important witness introduced during the day. He testified that on the night of the murder Jett and White were at his saloon. Jett told him a dog had been killed and afterwards explained that he meant James Marcum. Two more witnesses told of seeing Jett emerge from the side door of the courthouse after the shooting, and two witnesses corroborated Mrs. Johnson's story of seeing Tom White enter the rear of the quarry near Marcum's residence. Goodie Combs, a witness in the case, died at his boarding-house Saturday morning after a brief illness. Coroner Blair decided after an investigation that Combs' death was due to natural causes.

EDITOR'S LONG WALK.

Will Go It Afoot Beyond the Arctic Circle.

Robert M. Wilson, editor of the Durand, (Ill.) Lippincott, started on foot yesterday for Cape Lisburne, on the Arctic Ocean, 8,000 miles away. He will go through Minnesota and Canada, following the coast from Vancouver to Cape Nome, thence to his destination, beyond the arctic circle. He expects to be gone 15 months.

MINISTER WEDS

Rev. Francis L. Goff and Miss Lula Graves Married.

Rev. Francis Lee Goff, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Miss Lula Graves, a popular young lady teacher in the Hopkinsville public schools, were wedded Thursday evening, at the home of Mr. P. H. Bassett, on Ninth street. Rev. W. L. Nourse performed the ceremony.

The wedding came as a surprise to their friends. There had been some rumors, but no one knew that the culmination was so near at hand.

Mr. Goff became a widower shortly after he came to this city four years ago. He has two children. His bride has been a teacher in the city schools for several years. She is a niece of Mr. C. A. Thompson, the well known capitalist.

Mr. and Mrs. Goff will spend their honeymoon at Diamond Springs and upon their return will go to housekeeping September 1st in the parsonage near the First Presbyterian church. The groom is a popular and prominent divine, whose many friends will heartily congratulate him.

MUSICAL TREAT.

Concerts of Operatic Music at Coming Fall Festival.

Cincinnati, July 31.—Concerts of popular and operatic music played by the two most famous military bands in the U. S. will be given during the Cincinnati Fall Festival in place of the usual Sunday night sacred concert, and the recitals on Music Hall stage by individual artists. The floor space of Music Hall has been laid out in a series of exhibition booths, representing the different nations of the earth, while in the center a band stand will be erected. Here during the first week lines and his men will be stationed, and during the second, Sousa and his band. It would be difficult to say which organization is the most admired in Cincinnati. The balcony and gallery of Music Hall will be open for the accommodation of all who desire to listen to this glorious band music. From this elevation the point of view will be magnificent, affording an opportunity to observe the brilliant panorama, on the floor below, and to hear to the best advantage. Sousa's band will give an open air concert on the great stage erected for the spectacle of Marco Polo, on the banks of the canal, on Sunday afternoon and evening. The opportunity of listening to this great superb band in an out or doors auditorium, where its total qualities may be displayed to the best advantage, is so unusual that the directors of the Fall Festival are arranging to have low rate excursions from all parts of the country run into Cincinnati on that date, expressly to afford the people living outside the city an opportunity to attend. A band of Spanish students, and another of Hawaiian players using their soft, stringed instruments to produce the quaint melodies of their native lands, will be charming additions to the park music, which will also include four fine orchestras and a military marching band, used in the spectacle of Marco Polo.

REPUBLICANS TODAY

Will Nominate Judge James Breathitt For Circuit Judge.

The Republicans held their county conventions throughout the district Saturday and will convene in district convention today. Judge James Breathitt has instructed votes insuring his nomination.

Prentice Thomas, of Trigg, has Calloway's vote, but the question of nominating a commonwealth's attorney will be decided after a district conference.

Judge Breathitt has consented to run and will be nominated without opposition.

Louisville, Ky., July 31.—Mayor Grainger this morning announced his approval of a plan to require all the railroads entering Louisville to either elevate or depress their tracks. If done this work would cost in the neighborhood of $10,000,000.

OPENING DAY

Will Be Children's Day at Hopkins County Fair.

Finest Racers And Show Stock Ever Seen in Western Kentucky on Hand.

The great Hopkins county fair opens today at Madisonville with bright prospects of a successful meeting. Concerning the fair the Hunter says:

To say that the Great Hopkins Fair this year is bigger than a circus is putting it mildly, and no exaggeration is made when we say that it will be the greatest of all the Great Hopkins County Fairs.

To show something of its magnitude it will require a solid train of circus cars and two engines to pull it, to bring the horses, shows and other accessories from Guthrie, which includes 151 head of the finest racing and show stock ever seen in Western Kentucky, together with Kennedy's Wild West shows and bands of Indians.

Exhibits at the Floral hall promise to be unusually large this year and visitors should not go away from the fair without taking a peep at the pretty and interesting articles to be seen there.

Tuesday the opening day of the Fair, will be free children's day and old people's day. The program will be just as elaborate and good on that day as any other day of the Fair and all who attend on that day can feel assured of seeing everything that is to be seen at the big show.

There is nothing so important in facing severe hot weather as a well organized digestive force. When the stomach properly digests nutritious food it creates new, rich blood; and fortifies the system against exhaustion. Walter's Peptonized Food, to be found at all drug stores, is an ideal combination of pure, rich port and the best quality of pepsin. It strengthens the weak digestive organs, restores the appetite, builds and tones up the entire system.

For invalids, convalescents and worn out people, there is nothing so beneficial as Walter's Peptonized Food. For sale by Anderson & Fowler, & J. O. Cook, Druggists, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Small size 50 cents, large size $1.00.

LEADER IS ARRESTED.

Kentuckian Said to Have Led the Danville Mob.

Danville, Ill., July 30.—The police today arrested Winfred Baker who, it is said, led the mob in the attack on the jail last Saturday night. Baker came from Kentucky a few weeks ago. Three more arrests were made today in addition to that of the alleged leader, making seventeen in all. More warrants are still out.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, disorganizes and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is still afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a genuine sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet titled "How to Swamp-Root," all about kidney trouble, and the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

IT'S THE BEST.

Usual Large Crowd Preparing for Old Point Trip.

The prospects for a large party to go on the Old Point Comfort trip August 18 were never brighter. Inquiries from all over the country are pouring in and sleeping car reservations are being rapidly taken up. Hopkinsville will send a large delegation this time and Clarksville will also have a good crowd. A big party is being organized at Madisonville, and Henderson, Evansville and Owensboro will be well represented. There will be quite a number from Paducah, Morganfield, Uniontown, Fulton, Murray, Princeton, and other points in Western Kentucky. Springfield, Mo., will also be represented by probably a dozen. Several from near Trenton and Casky are preparing to go and a dozen or more in this county, outside of Hopkinsville, are arranging to take the trip. This is decidedly the best of all summer outings and the people are not slow to take advantage of it. For pleasure, cheapness, long ticket limit, grand scenery and instructiveness the Old Point trip excels them all.

Nearly Forfeits His Life.

A runaway almost ending fatally started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Backlen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eruptions and piles. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's Drug Store.

Will Not Resign.

The Clarksville Times-Journal denies the rumor that Engineer R. E. Harwood, of the Tennessee Central, is to resign his position. Mr. Harwood has charge of the construction department between here and Clarksville.

NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH.

Judge Hobson Saves His Little Daughter From Drowning.

Tennessee Senatorial Fight.

Nashville, Tenn., July 31.—There are indications of a strenuous fight in Tennessee for the United States senatorship between Gen. William B. Bate, the present Senator, and former Gov. Benton McMillin. Both men are organizing their forces in every county in the State, and the outcome is doubtful.

Coming as it does, in the busiest season, when a man can least afford to lose time, a sure and quick cure for diarrhoea is very desirable.
Anyone who has given it a trial will tell you that the quick, ac-cure and most pleasant remedy in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
There is no loss of time when it is used, as one or two doses of it will cure any ordinary attack. It never fails, not even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by C. K. Wily, druggist.

coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these tablets are just what is needed to

CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM.

A Christian County Lady Writes

Entertainingly of the Discussions.

Chautauqua, N. Y., July 29

EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:—

In order that your readers may know something of the entertainment offered visitors to Chautauqua, I give a copy of the program for one day, Monday, July 27.

"The Basis for the Foreign Mission Appeal," Dr. H. C. Mabie, Corresponding Secretary of the American Baptist Missionary Union, Boston.

"Shakespeare's Conception of Tragedy and Comedy," Dr. Richard G. Moulton, Professor of Literature (in English) at the University of Chicago.

"The Nature of Religions. Sympa-thetically Considered and Their Present Significance," Dr. G.
Stanley Hall, of Clarke University.

"Marc Antony's Aration; a Study of Oratorical Tact," Mr. S. H.
Clark, head of the department of public speaking and elocution at the University of Chicago.

"A Family of pinners; or Lecture on Nature Study," Dr. S. C.
Schmucker, who will be remembered as the author of a series of articles in The Ladies' Home
Journal under the title of "Seeing Things Outdoors."

"Orchestral Concert," Mr. Wm.
H. Sherwood and Chautauqua orchestra.

Now, here are a sermon, three lectures, a recital, and a concert, to say nothing of athletics, aquatic and recitations in the fifteen schools of Chautauqua. Of course, no one can take in everything going on here. "You pay your money and you take your choice," and think how little money you pay. Any one of the three lectures mentioned, the recital, or the concert, would cost you fifty cents in your own town, while a five-dollar ticket pays for a series of such daily entertainments here from July 6 to August 31.

"Liquor Problem Week" at Chautauqua promises to bring together a notable group of men and women prominent in this field of activity. Many noted W. C. T. U.
representatives will reach Chautauqua Saturday, August 1st.

An important modification of the program has been made for the week of August 10-15. Thoughtful citizens have become alarmed by the apparent increase of the mob spirit which manifests itself in all parts of the country. It behooves good citizens, first clearly to understand and interpret the facts, second to outline policies and principles which must be maintained in order to counteract lawlessness and violence.

To this end the following distinguished men have consented to speak upon the various aspects of the problem:

August 10, 11:00 a. m., "Mountain Feuds," President William G.
Frost, Berea College, Kentucky; H.
M. Brook, Superintendent Public Instruction, Leslie county, Kentucky.

August 10, 2:30 p. m., Dr. J. M.
Baker, New York, on "Mental and Moral Contagion."

August 11, 11:00 a. m., "The Lynching Spirit," John Temple
Graves, Atlanta, Ga.

August 12, 11:00 a. m., "The Strike and the Mob Spirit," by prominent representatives of labor.

August 13, 11:00 a. m., "The Growing Tendency of the Mob
Spirit," D. M. Parry, President
National Manufacturer's Association.

August 14, 11:00 a. m., "The Law and the Mob Spirit," leading jurist.

THE HUNTER.

He is out and in the open by breaking of the day.
He is a steady eye and steady aim.
He does not feed the birds or beasts that cross his errand way.
For he's a better game.
No Indian wears more proudly his trophies still and stark.
Than he the hunter that dangles at his belt.
But how could steps to kiss each feather and quill mark.
That his red hands have dealt.
His weapons are old-fashioned—he's a hunter's soul and gay.
His trails lead through the country and the town.
And when he sights his quarry, the wise old hunter says:
"Do not shoot—for we'll come down."
The spring he doth out-ride, this hunter after bears.
His trophies have been said and have been hung.
Yet still he goes a-hunting, with his bow and feathered dart.
Just as when the world was young.
—VIRGIL SHARPE, in Canadian Magazine.

CAPTAIN BILL'S "STRIKER."

BY ROBERT HALSTEAD.

He had forgotten the friends with him at the theater and dimly heard something about "the constitution following the flag." He was back in the Philippines, far north of Manila, with his colored "striker" busily fussing about, trying to make him comfortable. His friends were not used to his forgetfulness of them. He came after the Spanish-American war to have gained the habit of falling without warning into fits of reverie, when he would wake up to say "No" in answer to a question which should have been answered in the affirmative, and "Yes" when the negative was expected. Capt. Bill was a gentleman and quick to correct the mistaken answers and to apologize for his abstraction.

It did seem strange, however, that he should be so unusually forgetful of the others to-night. They had come together to celebrate his promotion to the two bars on his shoulder straps. Capt. Bill was one of those hastily graduated classes at West Point when the war with Spain came, and had attained a rank which, after the war of the states, had been the final ambition of the graduates, to be hoped-for reward of men about to be turned on halfpay after long years of faithful and honorable service.

There had been a jolly dinner in honor of Capt. Bill, a modest hero, at which he had been among the gayest. In the lobby of the theater he had stopped to shake hands with a brother officer. His gay spirits were gone when he took his seat. His face had grown haggard and the square jaw firmly set, so that the smile his friends loved so well was gone. They took it that he must be again on one of his mental journeys. They were most of them army people and knew that these moods were the result of the long days of sickness at Montauk Point and the trials of his campaigning in the Philippines. They were indulgent until after the theater.

They had gathered in a restaurant, where a private room was reserved for them. The captain tried to be as cheerful as the rest. He emptied his wine glasses faster than is usual in polite company, especially when women are present.

"Look here, captain," said a little lady to his right, "you are in some sort of trouble or you are ill. If you are in trouble you are surrounded by the best friends you have, and if you are ill I ought to do something for you."

He looked up in a half-dazed way, poured down another glass of wine, straightened up and said:

"I don't want to be death at the feast. You must pardon me for my rudeness and inattention. I have heard very bad news. I met Maj. Bucklin in the lobby. He told me Jim Tucker is dead. You never knew Jim, of course. He was a negro sergeant, a good soldier, and a most interesting fellow. You may think it queer that I feel so bad, but it isn't strange. You'd feel like I do if the man who saved your life, the fellow who kept you from going stark mad when the fever came back and you were in charge of a detachment away off from everybody, had died like a dog. With no other officer I had to dine alone in these Philippine days."

"Jim used to wait on me and with his golly kept me laughing. He was better than I had been nervous for he was black as tar, but he had a great, big, red heart inside of him. When we got back to Manila the time I was wounded the officers in my ward used to laugh at me because I asked so often after Jim. No, I don't want to spoil the fun and I'll be just as jolly as the rest of you."

The company were weary of mock gaiety and eager to hear the story of Jim Tucker. It was as hard to get the captain to tell anything about his experiences in the field as it was to catch him in any way referring to himself, and they insisted that he tell of Jim, knowing he would have to tell of his own experiences. The captain hesitated and then his eyes lit up. There was a pitiful smile at the corners of his mouth, telling the story of his "striker's" drollery in the days when they were far from home in the land of the bolo men.

"The first time I took any particular notice of Jim," said the captain, "was a few days after his enlistment at the time of the outbreak of the war with Spain. I was coming down a company street trying to find out who could have such a tremendous and joyful guttaw. Jim had been telling one of his stories to a crowd. My big black men were in convulsions of laughter, but high above them all sounded the merry 'Ha, ha' of Jim. He sort of doubled up with his knees bending, until he would reach the ground. He would roll over and kick his legs, his laughter increasing, and roaring out like a donkey saluting the dawn."

"I never saw anyone before or since laugh that way and moved toward the men. They managed to come to attention and salute, but poor Jim had to be kicked by one of them before he realized the presence of an officer. He jumped up and saluted. As it turned away he continued his joy in his own droll way."

"He was the delight of the company on the transport on the way to Cuba, and all the officers had come to regard him with an affectionate interest, for he kept the men in the best of spirits and was at the same time, I believe, the best drilled man in the regiment."

"We were in an ugly scrap where Jim was doing a man's work when suddenly he fell and was carried to the rear. Not long after his fall he heard about the sound of battle and he came limping back, cringing from ear to ear. He took his position near me, and when I had a chance I asked him how much he was hurt. He handed me a badly broken pocket-knife. The Spaniard's bullet had hit the knife which had been deep down in his trousers pocket."

"I moved away with the knife in my hand, and when I passed again Jim had been taken to the rear, supposedly dying. I stuffed the knife in my pocket. The next time I saw Jim was at Montauk. I had been in 'foolish land' for a long time. They told me afterward I had been near the land where Jim is now. When I came to my senses there was Jim bathing my face. No man ever came back to the world to meet with a better greeting. Jim was so happy he went out beyond the hospital tents to have a roll on the ground and one of his old-time laughs, but, far away as he was, I heard him and it did my heart good. When I was well enough to wander about in my pajamas with Jim as a support, he asked me about the knife and if I had lost it."

"You see, lieutenant, that knife saved my life. That bullet would have killed me if it had struck de knife. It came off and took me through de hip, but I didn't know dat when I handed it to you, and while you was gone I got dizzy and de doctor at Siboney fixed me up and sent me home on de transport."

"Jim got back his knife. My striker was killed at El Caney and so I chose Jim. Now the soldier as a rule has little talk with the officers, but when you are a million miles from anywhere and you know that you have an inimitable story teller near by is an immense help toward cheerfulness. Jim forgot that I was his superior, and the fact that I liked his stories made him a man of distinction in the company. He would tell you the same yarn in a dozen different ways, adding to and rearranging the incidents with the skill of a writer of plays."

"You want to know how he saved my life? Well, we got word that the insurgente had captured a train of supplies and that they were supposed to be in our neighborhood. We went hunting and came upon them just after dusk."

"I was riding ahead with Jim when on the top of a hill I spied the cars, and just as I did a fellow fired out of the brush to my right. He missed. My horse bolted straight ahead. I yelled to Jim to 'get him,' and the next thing I knew I was right among them. I dropped four, and then my last cartridge failed. I slid off my horse to the left as one of them fired at me. He whipped out angrily just as I hit him full in the face with the revolver."

"I did not catch him right, and I never saw a fellow grin as he did. He thought he had me. I caught the first blow on the left hand, and then ran for all I was worth. I felt I must soon drop, for I was bleeding at a great rate, and he was getting nearer. Something prompted me to hold the bleeding hand high above my head so that it did not bleed so freely, but the Gung was gaining."

"Just then I saw Jim come out of the brush. I dodged to the right to give him a fair shot and he dropped him. The men laid us out near together. They fixed a tourniquet about my arm and bandaged the hand. Then they turned to the man who came so near getting me. He was dying and begged for water. Jim was at his side at once and put his canteen to the insurgente's lips."

"'Buena amigo!' he gasped, and was gone. I received medical aid some hours later when reinforcements arrived, and was hurried to Manila. I had lost the use of my hand and was sent on to America, where the surgeons did so well with me that I am minus only two fingers and have perfect use of the others. I expected to see Jim again at the post. I had heard of his promotion until he became a first sergeant."

"It seems that when he reached San Francisco he went out to see the sights. Some rough in Chinatown robbed and killed him."

"Jim always wanted to be buried under a weeping willow near the post, and he was, with military honors."—N. Y. Times.

FEWER LYNCHINGS.

Decrease Has All Been in the South.

There have been fifty-two lynchings up to date the present year. The tendency is toward a decrease of lynchings. In 1893 there were 200 lynchings in the country. In 1902 there were only 96, a decrease of over 100 per cent. This decrease has all been in the South.

Alum Baking Powders.

There are so many alum baking powders about, most of which are represented to be made of cream of tartar, that the following list of powders in which chemists have found alum will be of value:

SWETHEART,
BON BON,
VISION,

The housekeeper should bear in mind that alum makes a cheap baking powder. It costs but two cents a pound, while cream of tartar costs thirty. The quality of the powder is, therefore, usually indicated by the price.

LOOPING THE LOOP.

Diavolo's Famous Act a Feature of Forepaugh-Sells Circus.

Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' United Shows are exploiting a feature this season which eclipses in point of sheer daring anything ever attempted in any arena. It is the famous Diavolo in "his looping the loop" on a bicycle, an act which created the profoundest sensation in New York City and Philadelphia and elicited more praise and was given more space in the metropolitan press than any single act ever presented to the public.

Looping the loop is described as danger-defying and death-defying, which is as near correct as words can make it. From the extreme height of the canvas dome Diavolo makes a thrilling descent down the narrow plane on a bicycle and the momentum thus gained carries him around the loop at a terrific rate of speed. At the top of the loop both the rider and wheel are upside down and going at the rate of forty miles an hour. It is a hair-raising act and one that all should see, as it gives a practical demonstration of the first scientific lesson of youth—the swinging in a circle of a bucket full of water without spilling. The date of the show here is Thursday, August 27th.

NEW J. C. SHOPS.

Option Taken on Eighty Acres of Ground.

Announcement has been made that the Illinois Central Railroad has secured an option on eighty acres of ground in the southern part of Louisville. It is understood that the ground is desired for the erection there of large shops.

"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach," an old saying meaning that to win a man you must feed him well.

If this is not true, it is still true in another sense that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. Many persons imagine that they have heart disease when it is only indigestion.

This is how it comes about. The stomach distended by gas, crowds the heart and gives the feeling that the trouble is in the heart. If you don't know that you have heart trouble, try using Walter's Peptonized Port and see if it does not relieve you. For sale by Anderson & Fowler, & J. O. Cook, Druggists, Hopkinsville, Ky.

BUD O'BRIEN

Resigns as Receiver at Western Asylum.

Mr. J. C. O'Brien, for three years receiver at the Western Asylum, resigned his place some time ago to take effect August 1. He gave up the position Saturday and has returned to his home in Owensboro. Mr. O'Brien has throughout his entire term made a popular and painstaking official and quite with the good opinion of the people of Christian county, to whom he came a stranger three years ago.

His retirement brought about a contest for the office of receiver last week, in which the Board of Commissioners took part. Mr. W. C. Cook, an attendant at the asylum, was endorsed for the place by a majority of the board, but when Dr. W. W. Ray, the Superintendent, heard of the action being taken in Mr. Cook's behalf, he dismissed him from the position he already held, without giving him any explanation, so it is said.

Mr. W. J. Chiles, it is said, will be made receiver, by direction of Gov. Beckham.

The position of receiver pays $50 a month and is filled by appointment of the Superintendent.

CARRIE RILED.

Saloon Smasher Lectures to Noisy Crowd.

After smashing a bottle of the best whisky at a Pennsylvania picnic resort, and moralizing with several pedestrians on the streets as to the dangers attendant upon cigarette smoking, Carrie Nation, the Kansas saloon smasher, lectured at the baseball park near Pottsville.

The crowd she drew was noisy, and a brigade of young men, purposely at a given signal, lighted cigarettes to annoy her. This riled the old lady, so she challenged any one in the crowd to debate with her on the question:

"Resolved, That the Republican party is the bitterest enemy to the rights of the American people."

No one took up her challenge.

She scored President Roosevelt for bringing to Kansas last May his saloon on wheels. She said that had she not been laid up she would have smashed it to flinders.

PHOENIX CLOSES

We have a Very Great Variety from which to select.

THIRD,

We buy for Cash and can sell Cheaper on that 'count.

In addition to all this, we are handling makes of vehicles that we have dealt in for years and know their merit. Come and look carefully through our stock, upstairs and down, and it will end in our selling you just what you want.
